PREFACE.

"THE VOICE OF PRAISE" REPRESENTS THE HIGHEST ATTAINMENT, OF THE PRESENT AGE, IN THE COMPILATION OF SACRED SONGS FOR SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND PRAISE SERVICES. THE SOLE PURPOSE OF THE EDITORS WAS TO COMBINE QUALITY AND VARIETY. THE QUALITY OF THE SONGS IN THIS BOOK IS THE HIGHEST ATTAINABLE. THE POEMS ARE SCRIPTURAL IN CHARACTER; THE MUSIC EXACTLY SUITED TO THE WORDS. TOGETHER THEY MAKE A HARMONIOUS AND BEAUTIFUL COMBINATION, EASILY LEARNED, LASTING IN USE. THERE IS THE GREATEST VARIETY THAT MONEY AND INTELLIGENCE COULD PRODUCE. EVERY SONG OF IMPORTANCE IS IN THIS COLLECTION. NEARLY EVERY AUTHOR IS REPRESENTED. WE FEEL THAT WE HAVE SUCCEEDED IN COMPILING THE MOST SUITABLE AND USEFUL BOOK, FOR THE PURPOSE, EVER ISSUED.

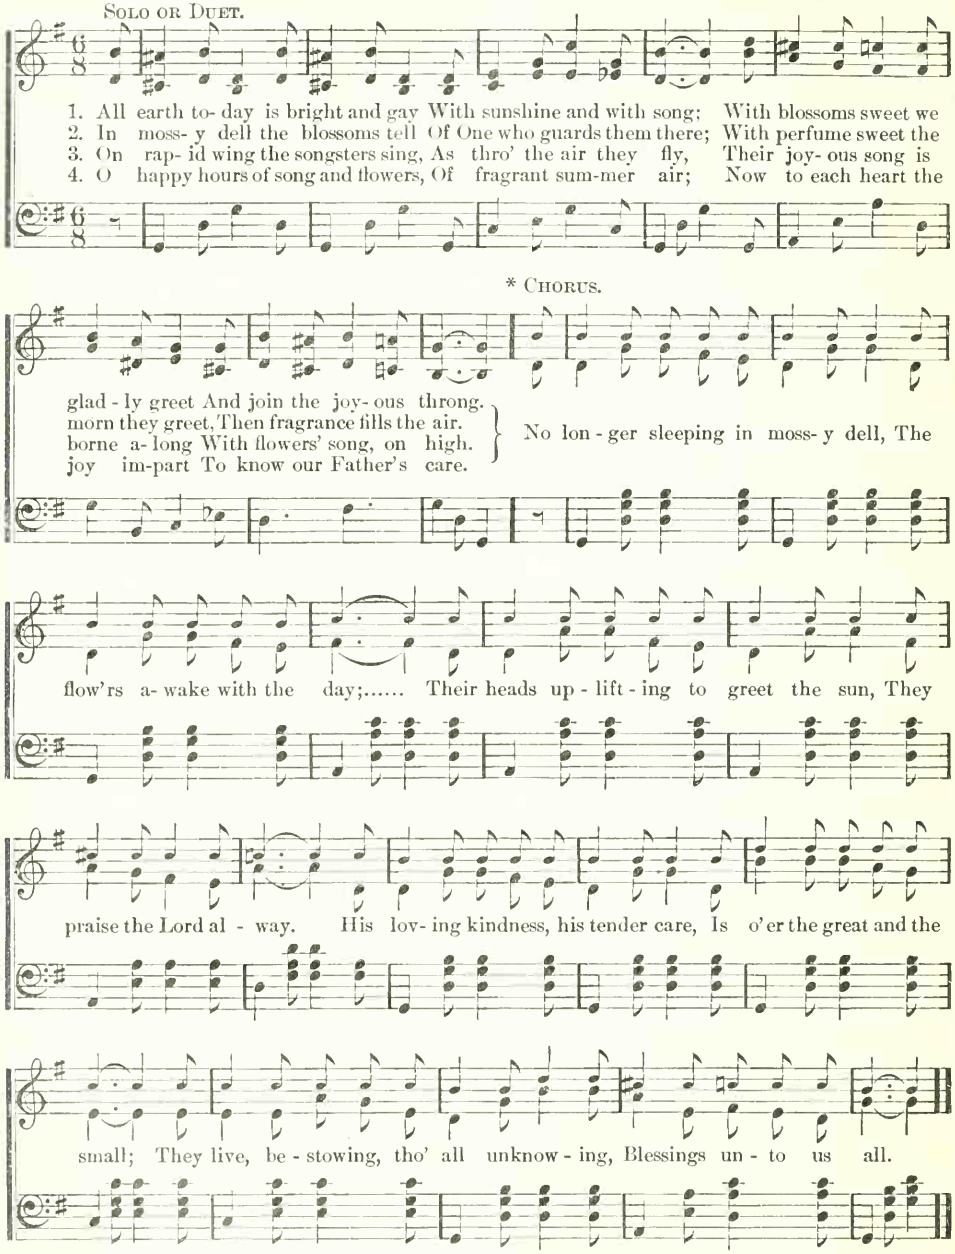
Solo or Duet.



* A fine effect may be made by having the duet sung by two older voices, and at chorus have one voice lead the girls in singing the small notes and another voice leading boys with melody. If this is impracticable, have whole school sing melody of chorus, a few strong, selected voices sing small notes.

2 On the shore, dimly seen thro' the mists of the deep,
Where the foes' haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected, now shines on the stream;

3 O thus be it ever when freemen shall stand
Between their loved homes and war's desolation;
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n-rescued land
Praise the pow'r that has made and preserved us a nation,
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto, "In God is our trust."

1. Once some wise men saw a star, As they journeyed from afar Over desert wastes and valleys fair;
2. From celestial realms of light, Thro' the arches of the night, While the skies with songs of seraphs ring,
3. 'Twas that star, whose splendors bright Filled the world with flaming light As it shone throughout the starry dome,
4. Ever shine, O starry gem, O'er the town of Bethlehem Till the earth shall worship Christ, the King!

Many weary leagues went they Till they came where Jesus lay, And they bent the knee of adoration there.
Shone that glorious, starry gem O'er the town of Bethlehem, Where the travlers worshipped Christ, the new-born King.
That proclaimed to all the earth Tidings of Messiah's birth, As it told that Christ, the Prince of Peace, was come.
Till thy rays we all may see Shining over land and sea, And each nation unto him shall tribute bring!

LEADER:—And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.—John 10: 16.

RESPONSE:—Thus saith the Lord of hosts; Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country;—Zech. 8: 7.

L.—The Gentiles shall come to thy light and Kings to the brightness of thy rising.—Isa. 60: 3-5.

R.—Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side.

L.—Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.

R.—And an highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: the wayfaring men, though fools shall not err therein.—Isa. 35: 8.

L.—And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs, and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.—Isa. 35: 10.

R.—How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

L.—And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!—Rom. 10: 14-15.

R.—Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest.

L.—And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.—John 4: 35-36.

R.—Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.—Mark 16: 15.

Songs suited to this subject:—21, 48, 49, 56, 94, 172.

L.—And Jacob awaked out of his sleep and he said, Surely the Lord is in this place; and I knew it not.

R.—And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.

L.—And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put for his pillows, and set it up for a pillar, and poured oil upon the top of it.

R.—And he called the name of that place Bethel, but the name of that city was called Luz at the first —Gen. 28: 16-19.

L.—I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord.—Ps. 122: 1.

R.—As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.

L.—My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God? —Ps. 42: 1-2.

R.—How amiable are thy tabernacles, O Lord of hosts!

L.—My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the Lord: my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God.

R.—Yea, the sparrow hath found an house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, even thine altars, O Lord of hosts, my King, and my God.

L.—Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee.—Ps. 84: 1-4.

R.—A day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.—Ps. 84: 10.

L.—And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart.

R.—Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.—Acts 2: 46-47.

L.—The hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

R.—God is a spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth. —John 4: 23-24.

No. 244. Sowing and Reaping.

Songs suited to this subject:—24, 113, 155, 169.

L.—While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease. —Gen. 8: 22.

R.—For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

L.—Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the Lord for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.—Isa. 55: 12-13.

R.—We came unto the land whither thou sentest us, and surely it floweth with milk and honey; and this the fruit of it.—Num. 13: 27.

L.—Blessed of the Lord be his land, for the precious things of heaven, for the dew, and for the deep that coucheth beneath.

R.—And for the precious fruits brought forth by the sun, and for the precious things put forth by the moon.—Deut. 33: 13-14.

L.—He watereth the hills from his chambers: the earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.

R.—He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man: that he may bring forth food out of the earth.—Ps.—104: 13-14.

L.—Blessed be the Lord, who daily loadeth us with benefits, even the God of our salvation.—Ps. 68: 19.

R.—And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground.

L.—And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

R.—For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

L.—But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.—Mark 4: 26-29.

R.—The harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.—Matt. 13: 39.

No. 248. The Lord's Coming.

Songs suited to this subject:—19, 35 61, 99, 153.

L.—In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

R.—And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.—John 14: 2-3.

L.—I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you.—John 14: 18.

R.—Who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap. —Mal. 3: 2.

L.—Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ.—1 Pet. 1: 13.

R.—To the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.—1 Thes. 3: 13.

L.—Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not. —Luke 12: 40.

R.—Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.—Heb. 10: 25

L.—He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.—Rev. 20: 7.

No. 249. The Holy Spirit.

Songs suited to this subject:—89, 180 193.

L.—And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:

R.—And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my Spirit.—Joel 2: 28-29.

L.—For I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground: I will pour my Spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring:—Isa. 44: 3.

R.—Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him

L.—He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.

R.—These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.

L.—But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.—John 14: 23- 26.

R.—And ye are witnesses of these things.

L.—And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you.—Luke 24: 48-49.

R.—And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.
